Eben Sadie

Eben Sadie has been described as an enfant terrible and is considered to be one of South Africa's first certified celebrity winemakers as well as "one of the greatest and most original winemakers in the southern hemisphere."

Following a period as a surfer, Eben travelled and worked the world's wine regions (including Germany, Austria, Oregon, California, France & Spain). Eben takes incredible care in the vineyards and everything is done by gravity and hand. Concrete and wooden open fermenters are used. The wines are matured in large, old foudres and or concrete casks with minimal intervention. The goal is to allow the wines show their truest character and sense of place. As Eben says 'It's a very pure way of producing the wine'.

The Sadie Family produces around 3500 cases of wine annually. The Signature Series consists of the Columella (red regional blend) and Palladius (white regional blend) and then the Old Vine Series is 8 single old vine parcels that is bottled individually of some of the oldest and most historic vineyards in South Africa. The Old Vine Series consists of the following wines; Skurfberg, Skerpioen, Voetpad, Kokerboom, Mev. Kirsten, Pofadder, Soldaat and Treinspoor and 'YES' it is Afrikaans names in keeping with the historical track that these wines embody.
